

Travel with SL all over Stockholm County.

Stockholm County covers a distance of several kilometers outside the city centre and includes various means of transport such as the Metro, buses, commuter trains, local rail services and ferries.

Local tip:

Bus line 4 is a great non-tourist tourist guide that takes you around the city center.

Take a seat for the environment.

Did you know that all our buses throughout the Stockholm County runs on fossil free fuel and that the commuter rail and the Metro are fueled by clean electricity from renewable sources.

Let us guide you.

We will be pleased to assist you finding your way around Stockholm. Just call our Customer Services at any time!

Local tip:

Experience Stockholm's best view at Monteliusvägen. Just 10 minutes walking distance from Mariatorget Metro station.

Visitor tickets.

There are different types of SL tickets: Which ticket suits you best?

Single journey tickets.

Ideal for occasional journeys and the easiest way to buy them are in the SL-app. They are also available in our ticket machines, at our ticket booths in the Metro and commuter rail areas or at one of many ticket agents around Stockholm, marked with a blue SL-flag.

Single adult fare
SEK 45

Travelcards.

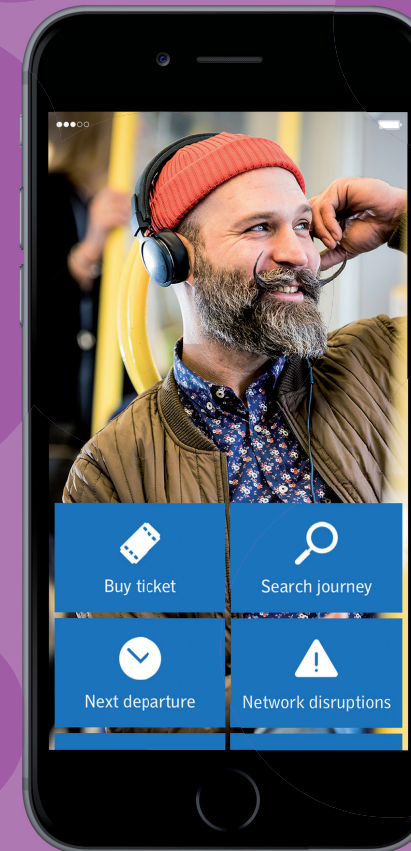

Ideal for travelling extensively for a limited period. For example we have 24-hour and 72-hour tickets. You can load them on an SL Access Card at any of our ticket booths in the Metro and commuter rail areas or at one of many ticket agents around Stockholm, marked with a blue SL-flag.

A single journey ticket is valid for unlimited travel on all SL services for 75 minutes.

Our busdrivers and conductors do not handle cash, so make sure you have a ticket or SL Access credit when you step on board.

24-hour adult fare
SEK 130

The app.

The SL app is a convenient way to navigate your way around, find the quickest route, plan your trip and buy a single journey ticket. Download the app from App Store or Google Play.

Welcome to Stockholm.

- Yes, you can drink the tap water.
- No, we do not have wild polar bears.
- Our coffee break is called "fika".
- Swedes are experts when it comes to standing in line.

Local tip:

Boat line 82 from Slussen is an alternative and beautiful way to get to the islands of Skeppsholmen or Djurgården.

Have a nice stay!
